Coach "Jimmie" Turner of the Norwich university foot ball team was in the city yesterday and left last night for his home in Chicago. He talked with local parties about putting on a college foot ball game at Intercity park on Thanksgiving day, but he found that there was doubt of the success of the proposition, on account of the lateness of the season. So he has given up the idea. Coach Turner thinks Norwich's chances for next season are particularly bright, as only three men will be lost, including Allen Reid and James Carwell of this city, who graduate next spring.
